III. Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability

1. The questions whether the claimed invention appears to be novel, to involve an inventive step (to be non obvious), or to be industrially applicable have not been examined in respect of:

☐ the entire international application.

☒ claims Nos. 8-17

because:

☒ the said international application, or the said claims Nos. 14, 15 relate to the following subject matter which does not require an international preliminary examination (specify):

See supplemental sheet

☒ the description, claims or drawings (indicate particular elements below) or said claims Nos. 8-13, 16, 17 are so unclear that no meaningful opinion could be formed (specify):

See supplemental sheet

☐ the claims, or said claims Nos. _____ are so inadequately supported by the description that no meaningful opinion could be formed.

☒ no international search report has been established for said claims Nos. 14, 15

2. A meaningful international preliminary examination cannot be carried out due to the failure of the nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence listing to comply with the standard provided for in Annex C of the Administrative Instructions:

☐ the written form has not been furnished or does not comply with the standard.

☐ the computer readable form has not been furnished or does not comply with the standard.

Supplemental Box

(To be used when the space in any of the preceding boxes is not sufficient)

Continuation of: III.1

Claims 14 and 15

The inventions that are set forth in claims 14 and 15 pertain to methods for the treatment of the human body by therapy.

Claims 8-13, 16 and 17

The range of the structures that are included within the scope of the term "prodrug" as set forth in the claims cannot be said to be clear even in the light of the disclosures in the description; therefore, the scope of the compounds and the medicinal drugs that are set forth in the present application is unclear.

Consequently, the description and claims 8-13, 16 and 17 do not comply with the given requirements to such an extent as to make it possible to carry out a meaningful international search.

The international search report was created on the basis of a search of prior art documents in relation to the compounds that are specifically set forth in the description; as a result, the international preliminary examination was carried out in relation to the same range of compounds as the international search.
